COL. POTTER WILL RUN

The Councilman Announces He Will Try for Nomination.

The Others are Still Non-Committal
—Councilman Hannon May Run.

THE LATEST MAYORALTY NEWS

Councilman Joe Potter authorized the announcement this morning that he will run for the Democratic nomination for mayor of Paducah. He has received two calls through the papers, and while he will probably not formally accept for a day or two, he stated to a reporter today that he would run, and would run in the primary.

This will be no surprise to the councilman's friends, who know the pressure that has been brought to bear on him to make the race. A great many, however, seemed to hope that he would run independently of any party, as they believe that he would in that way poll a bigger vote.

Colonel Potter, in a conversation with a reporter, stated that if he is elected he will be mayor in every sense of the word. He said he would give his orders in such a way that they could not be misunderstood or ignored and that he would have an opinion on every subject, and wouldn't hesitate to give it.

"I never was afraid to say what I think, or to do what I believed was right," Colonel Potter declared. "I always have an opinion one way or the other on pretty much everything that comes up, and if it is necessary or advisable, I always say what I think. I am not a man of policy so far as such things are concerned. I always do what I think ought to be done, regardless of policy. There are few things that come up that I haven't an opinion on, too, I want to tell you. If two dogs get to fighting, I may not have any opinion at the start, but I always have one before they get through."

It is not generally known the extent to which Colonel Potter carries out his theory of saying what one thinks. About three or four weeks ago he went to the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and Rev. J. C. Reid, the pastor, in his sermon took the police officers to task for not doing what he thought they ought to do.

Colonel Potter arose in his pew, held up his hand, and when the minister saw him and stopped, said: "Excuse me, brother Reid, for interrupting you a moment, and allow me to set you right. You are jumping on the wrong people. It is not the police who are to blame, but their superiors, the men who instruct or regulate them, and give them their jobs. These men are to blame, not the police."

The congregation was very much interested in the proceeding, and the minister thanked Colonel Potter for the explanation, and let up on the police. It was the first time most of the people in the congregation had ever heard a preacher yield the pulpit temporarily to one of his hearers.

"I'll tell you, though," explained Colonel Potter today in relating the episode, "I'm this way. I'll take up for any man, even my worst enemy, if I am around when he is misjudged or abused."

Colonel Potter's candidacy is bound to "cut some ice" as the saying is, and he will now have some of the candidates guessing. It is said Sam Jones will be here this summer to boom Colonel Potter's candidacy.

Councilman Ed Hannon is being favorably mentioned also in regard to the race, and has a strong following, but stated today that he had not given in the matter any thought, hence a statement now would be premature.

Mayor Yeiser was asked if he intended to become a candidate for re-election and stated:

"I am not a candidate for re-election and no one else is as yet, according to what I am told. I may wait and see what the Republicans do before I say anything. What we want is to see the other side get on and shove their men to the front, then we will have plenty of time to announce and make the race."

Mr. G. R. Davis, the former councilman who ran against Mayor Yeiser in the last Democratic primary, is also favorably mentioned in the coming race, but stated today that he had not yet made up his mind.

Colonel R. G. Caldwell, chairman of the Democratic city committee, this morning said in regard to his becoming a candidate for mayor but he had nothing definite to say at present.

"I have been studying over the matter," he explained, "and have come to no definite conclusion. I rather think that I will not become a candidate. I do not know what the other men who have been called will do but will be able by tomorrow to state positively my stand."

Former Mayor Lang has already declined to run for the nomination, and it begins to look as if the race will be between Colonel Potter and Mayor Yeiser, unless Councilman Hannon consents to run. Although the primary is several months away, the mayoralty race is creating a great deal of interest in Paducah.

Wall Street, New York, April 1—The market opened strong this morning and continued to hold the advance well and from a conservative standpoint this morning one could not but draw the conclusion that the bear predilection for the present had run their course and that a further rally from the current level of prices was inevitable. Mr. Morgan's statement, which conveyed his attitude plainly concerning the prevailing depredations had material effect on the market, even though the interview, while not regarded as particularly bullish by the rank and file carried much weight from the fact that Mr. Morgan should consent to express himself thus at this time. The shorts thought it a part of wisdom to cover and in some issues caused sharp flurries by their purchases. Yet there was reported a fair amount of buying by big interests and a good investment demand sprung up in bonds. London was also a good buyer in our market. The decision will be handed down today in regards to the Keene injunction suit and this undoubtedly caused a great many people to stay out of the market, when this is settled we look for more favorable markets. Call money ranged strong from 6 to 12 per cent; sales to noon $90,800.

SUIT ON BOND.

R. L. POTTER FILED PETITION THIS MORNING.

R. L. Potter today filed suit in circuit court against the Illinois Central railroad and Attorneys Wheeler & Hughes for $1,000 damages on injunction bond. This is the bond that was given at the time the railroad took out an injunction to proceed with work on the Cairo extension of the road.

The attorneys went on the bond in order that work could proceed, and the injunction having been dissolved, the property owners now sue for damages on the bond. Mr. H. W. Rottgering filed suit yesterday for $2,000 damages.

TO ASK CHANGE OF VENUE.

Frankfort, April 1—When the case against Jim Howard, charged with complicity in the murder of Senator Goebel is called in the Franklin circuit court Tuesday, his attorneys will move to grant a change of venue to some adjacent county other than Scott County where the trial is to be held.

Mr. Gibbons began his career as mail carrier under the administration of President Jackson in 1833, when he was but 11 years old, and he has been "toting" Uncle Sam's property under every administration since.

Mr. Gibbons formed the acquaintance of President Jackson at Greensburg, Ky., while the latter was on his way from Nashville to Washington City. The president took the lad upon his knee, and at his solicitation promised him that he should be made a mail carrier. Shortly after the president's arrival at Washington Mr. Gibbons received his appointment and was given the route from Greensburg to Hodgenville, a distance of 35 miles.

For several years he served as mail carrier on the "lightning express" route from Louisville to New Orleans, plying between Munfordville and Glasgow. In the days of the stage coach Mr. Gibbons operated a line from Louisville to Nashville, on the old Bardstown turnpike, and among his regular passengers were some of the most noted men of those days.

Mr. Gibbons has carried the mails in all parts of the state, and has the remarkable record of never having missed a day from his duty, and of always carrying Uncle Sam's property to its proper destination without a mishap, though many times his life was placed in jeopardy. He relates many thrilling incidents of war times, and of the miraculous escapes he has had from the guerrillas.

YOUNG CORBETT WON THE DECISION IN THE ELEVENTH ROUND.

San Francisco, Cal., April 1—Young Corbett and Terry McGovern fought last night eleven rounds of as hard and pretty a fight as was ever seen here, and Corbett won in the eleventh round. It was scheduled to be twenty rounds, and fighting was furious from the start. The men were in good condition, and there was a large crowd present. McGovern was favorite by 10 to 8.

Both men received hard punishment and Corbett's victory is attributed principally to endurance. It is the second time Corbett has licked McGovern, who for some time previous had held the light weight championship.

Mrs. Henry Burnett and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Burnett, arrived from Louisville this morning to visit Mrs. Muscoe Burnett of W. S. Broadway.

The first of next month the scales will be presented by various unions of Paducah to the contractors to be signed, and the demands that will be made of the contractors by the union men will doubtless be known after the meeting of Central Labor union tomorrow night. All these scales go into effect May 1.

It is not believed, from statements made by various union men, that there will be the least trouble. The scales will probably be the same as in force at present, and will be promptly signed by contractors.

The union painters have settled their differences with the contractors at last, the scale being signed up last night. For the past year there had been no agreement. The painters last year demanded $2.50 a day for eight hours work, which was refused, the contractors offering $2.50 for nine hours. The painters have now accepted the nine hours-$2.50 proposition.

The brick famine in Paducah is still unrelieved, and the brick manufacturers are unable to supply the demand.

A member of one of the largest brick firms in this section stated this morning that they had just started up but would have no brick for the market before April 20. They are making plenty of brick and will have to first burn them before they are ready for use. Memphis, Louisville, Henderson and Evansville are all demanding brick and the famine there is as bad as here. A well known local brick man stated this morning that he had recently been in those four cities and that the building going on is something wonderful. Houses are being built everywhere and in nearly all cases are being constructed out of brick. Paducah has experienced a building boom for several years but not has the extent been shown so clearly as now when the contract work is being delayed by the lack of this material.

The Medical Society has not abandoned its idea of securing a new hospital for Paducah, but can do nothing until the ordinance calling a special election is disposed of in the boards. The city solicitor has rendered an opinion that such bonds cannot be voted at a special election, and it is not known what effect this will have in the ultimate disposition of the ordinance. In case the council and aldermen refuse to adopt an ordinance calling a special election, however, the doctors and other progressive men who are working for a new hospital will probably wait and have the bonds voted on in November.

The pile driver is working nicely at the Caldwell street bridge and the piling is being set as rapidly as possible. It can not be determined yet how long it will require to complete the bridge, but the work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. The street cars are making transfers from one car to the other but the Illinois Central at this place is still running dummy trains. The express companies are using the dummy trains exclusively.

SAFE BLOWERS GONE

Paducah Officers' Hard Work
Now Amounts to Naught.

O'Neal and Russell Get Out of the Eddyville Jail at Night-fall.

WERE AIDED BY PAL

Charles Russell and Frank O'Neal, the alleged safe blowers, are free men again, and the authorities at Eddyville are mourning their hasty departure for pastures new. If the advice of the police of Paducah had been heeded, the thieves would still be prisoners with chances of getting long terms.

Last night they escaped from the county jail at Eddyville, Lyon county, and before the alarm could be given were doubtless far away. They were aided by a confederate who did most of the work, and who pulled the wool over the eyes of the authorities in great shape.

According to the report received in Paducah, the jailer had been repeatedly warned to allow no one to be with the men, or to see them, and never to lock any one in the same cell with them or even near them.

A few days ago a strange man showed up in Eddyville, and after getting things in shape yesterday afternoon played drunk and tried to take the town. He created such a disturbance that he was arrested and locked in the jail, which is what he wanted. He was left in the corridor, and the two safe blowers were in one of the cells.

Reports seem to differ slightly as to how the men got out, but a telephone message to The Sun this morning stated that about 5 p. m. Jailer J. W. Kevil entered the jail to put in water, and left the outside door open. When he unlocked the door, to the safe blowers' cell the "drunken man" in the corridor seized him, and the safe blowers rushed out, and all three overpowered the jailer and bound him. He was kept in there by the six prisoners until about dark, all singing and dancing to prevent the officer's outcry attracting any attention. Their ruse was successful, and at dark they quietly opened the door and left.

One of the six prisoners, a negro, who did not have long to serve, remained and released the jailer, and later in the night one of the colored fugitives was caught.

Russell and O'Neal, it will be remembered, were arrested here a few months ago for blowing a safe at Confederate, Ky. They had skeleton keys, soap, cotton and other things used by safe blowers, and the Paducah police were very proud of their catch, and counted on the rascals getting long terms. After the arrest here the prisoners were fully identified as the men who were lurking about Confederate before the safe blowing, and later were identified as the men who bound and gagged a telegraph operator at Leitchfield, Ky., and leaving him in a freight car robbed the railroad station and safe.

On several occasions local officers had written to Eddyville, the county seat, where the prisoners were incarcerated, urging that they be brought here for safe keeping, but it was never done. It was then urged that no one be placed near them, for it was thought that some pal would eventually be on hand to aid them in escaping, and he showed up with all the success he could have wished.

One of the men claimed to be from Louisville and the other from Memphis.

Captain Henry Bailey and the local police are very much disappointed and disgusted today with the whole affair, for the safe keeping, trial and conviction of the thieves meant $200 reward to them, which they have now lost. They had repeatedly warned the jailer at Eddyville to allow no one, especially a stranger, to be placed near the robbers, as it was known that their pals would go there with saws and files sewed in their clothing and attempt to liberate them, even if they had to be put in jail to do it. They do not understand why the jailer opened the cell door. Captain Bailey had several times urged that the men be brought here for safe keeping, but they were kept there just the same. They are now doubtless gone for good, and all the work of the Paducah police and the reward they won have gone glimmering.

Carnival Committee Met Last Night. However.

Details of Country Store—Other Meetings Held in the City.

WHIST CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

The executive committee of the Paducah Carnival association held a meeting at Hotel Lagomarsino last night, and disposed of some important matters. It was decided to have a country store this year and to locate it on some prominent corner down town. Instead of big prizes being disposed of at the end of the carnival, and tickets being issued with every purchase, there will be big prizes every night.

These prizes will range in value from $10 to $50, a handsome $50 buggy to be given away the last day. The prize the first day will be a barrel of flour, a $25 ladies' watch the second day, a $30 bicycle the third day, a $15 suit of clothing the fourth day, and a $15 ladies' umbrella the fifth day.

The carnival colors have not yet been decided on.

Dr. J. V. Voris was chosen chief spiller and will at once select his assistants. Mr. S. A. Fowler was chosen chairman of the river transportation committee.

Tomorrow afternoon the executive committee expects to meet the mayor and street committee and definitely decide on the locations for the various attractions.

Friday night the executive committee will hold a meeting with the sub-committees.

A big meeting of Union Encampment, Odd Fellows, was held last night at their hall, Fifth and Broadway, and the following class was initiated: T. A. Hills, R. L. Gilbert, Daniel Galvin, J. E. Morgan, Charles McKinney, J. F. Householder, Earl Johnson, Samuel Whitmer, Edward Alexander, T. J. Hutchens, and Charles Smith, while John Katterjohn and H. A. Henneberger were reinstated.

The retail merchants will meet tonight in the K. P. hall in regular session, but nothing of importance is to come up so far as known, but it is understood that the matter of Sunday closing may be brought up. The clerks several days ago asked Mayor Yeiser to see that all merchants were closed on Sunday and this matter will be taken up by the merchants.

The Chess, Checker and Whist club will hold its monthly meeting this evening to ballot on petitions and transact other routine business.

HAD THE HEARSE IN WAITING FOR HIS WIFE

Springfield, Ill., April 1—James Pullen completed arrangements with a local undertaker for the burial of his wife, whom he reported to be dead at Jacksonville. He said the remains would arrive at 9 o'clock via the Wabash, and when the train pulled in a hearse and several carriages were in waiting at the depot. Instead of the deceased wife came Mrs. Pullen's brother, who notified the undertaker that Mrs. Pullen was not dead and that the arrangements for the funeral were merely an alcoholic freak of the husband.

Mrs. Pullen is ill at Jacksonville. All the local papers published her obituary this morning. Her illness is only slight.

CREATORE IS REPORTED INSANE FROM LOVE

Knoxville, Tenn., April 1—A private letter received in this city by a close friend of Creatore states that the great band leader has been placed in a private sanitarium near Cincinnati, madly insane from unrequited love.

The letter stated that the fact of the supposed temporary aberration of Creatore's mind has been kept a close secret, since it is sincerely hoped by his intimate friends that his recovery will be speedy and sure. The reported insanity is said to have resulted from the fact that the woman who has accompanied him through the south and who looked after him tenderly while he was ill in this city and Atlanta, has forsaken her affection for him and left him.

A MONTH OF GREAT WEATHER POSSIBILITIES

This is the first day of April, a very fickle month in meteorological possibilities.

It may get as warm as 91 degrees, as it did on April 30, 1894, or as cold as 21 degrees, as on April 8, 1875. But these are records. The normal average temperature for the month is 57 degrees, though in 1896 the average was 65 degrees, and in 1874, 49 degrees.

Again, it ought to rain 4.05 inches and have twelve days with more than .01 of an inch of rainfall. But the month may be as wet as April, 1872 when 9.08 inches of rain fell, or as dry as in 1896, when only a quarter of an inch was precipitated. The record rainfall for one day was April 15, 1880 with 4.06 inches. It may even snow as much as 1.7 inches as on April 5, 1898. The wind velocity will not likely exceed the gale of April 26, 1902, when 55 miles an hour was the maximum speed.

TO HANDLE REAL ESTATE

MR. S. A. HILL OF THE SUN ESTABLISHES AN AGENCY.

Mr. S. A. Hill, who for several years has been circulation manager of The Sun, has established a real estate and rent collecting agency. It is Mr. Hill's plan to find an investment for seekers after good investments and find a purchaser for any property left in his care, collecting rents, and finding tenants for vacant property, etc.

Mr. Hill will continue his connection with The Sun, but will have ample time to attend to his new business. With his wide acquaintance in Paducah he is in a splendid position for such a business. He will have an office with The Sun, and any telephone or written communications addressed there will receive proper attention.

IN GREAT STYLE

NO MORE SALOONS CAN NOW BE LICENSED AT FULTON.

Last night the liquor license on the Tennessee side at Fulton, Ky., ran out and the event was celebrated in great style. Goat was served in many forms and many other meats served also. The saloons are now closed for good and no more liquor can be purchased in Fulton from this date. There are but few remaining saloons holding license and these will all go out within a comparatively short time. The town recently went "dry" but the few saloons holding license were allowed to run until same had expired.

FIRE IN COUNTRY—Mr. Joel Collier of Collersville had the misfortune a day or two ago to lose his home by fire. The blaze originated from a defective pipe and the loss will amount to about $500.

STATE G. A. R. MEETS

Gathering to be Held May 19th-20th.

A Large Crowd Is Expected to Be in Louisville.

Arrangements for the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic department of Kentucky, which is to be held in Louisville, May 19 and 20, are progressing with satisfactory rapidity, and the reports made to the general arrangements committee indicate that the attendance will be larger than that of any state encampment ever held. It has not been held in Louisville for fourteen years, and naturally the attendance will be greater than when held in small towns difficult of access and presenting few attractions.

Three organizations will hold their annual meetings at the same time, the Grand Army of the Republic, the Woman's Relief Corps and the Ladies of the G. A. R. The railroads have agreed to give reduced rates for the meetings, and a large crowd is expected.

Mr. W. G. Fore, of Louisville, will probably be elected department commander to succeed Mr. T. F. Byland, of Bellevue. Mr. Matthew Wade, of Metcalfe county, has been prominently mentioned for senior vice department commander to succeed Mr. W. G. Fore.

Several Indiana posts have signified their intention of attending the encampment. They will, of course, be entitled to no representation, but will be heartily welcomed as visiting comrades.

FOR DAYS OF OLD.

MARK TWAIN MAKES SUGGESTIONS ABOUT BOAT RACES.

New York, April 1—Mark Twain has recalled the days when he was pilot on the Mississippi river in a letter to David R. Francis, president of the St. Louis exposition commission, in response to Sir Thomas Lipton's suggestion that a series of old-time steamboat races be made a feature of the exposition.

Mark Twain wants a genuine reproduction of the old-time race, with negro roustabout singers, the use of the torch basket rather than the searchlight, and the extinguishment of the latter day government lights, so that the quality of the piloting would count where the boats are evenly matched in speed.

"As a spectacle," writes Mark Twain "nothing could add to it except an old-time blow up as the boats finished the home stretch. But this should not be arranged; it is better left to Providence and prayer."

PREPARING TO ANNOUNCE.

Frankfort, April 1—Attorney General Clifton J. Pratt arrived from New York, where he has been attending the hearing of the merger cases before the interstate commerce commission. Judge Pratt will go to Madisonville, his old home, in a few days to consult with his friends regarding his candidacy, after which he will formally announce for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

MR. JAMES HEALY PAINFULLY INJURED YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Mr. James Healy, a venerable gentleman who resides with his daughter, Mrs. Hubbard Wells, near Fifth and Court streets was painfully hurt yesterday afternoon while on his way to the home of Mrs. George B. Hart to see his other daughter, Mrs. Lesch, who is ill.

He is about 90 years old, and was walking for exercise. He attempted to cross the street railway trestle on Jefferson street near Fountain avenue when his foot slipped on the foot-walk in the track and he fell, his left leg going between the ties.

A colored man assisted him up and he was taken home in an ambulance, and found to have sustained a painful wrench of the left leg, and possibly a fracture, and was also painfully bruised. His many friends will wish him a speedy recovery.

CHILDREN'S COUGHS AND COLD

Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. 1st street, Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have given Ballard's Horehound Syrup to my children for coughs and colds for the past four years, and find it the best medicine I ever used." WAS FOUND IN RAGS

Escaped Convict Caught in Arkansas Recently.

Kept in Jail Here Last Night and Taken to Eddyville Today.

Mr. Finis L. Clark, deputy sheriff of Fulton county, passed through the city last night en route to Eddyville with John Holt, colored, an escaped convict who was sent up from Fulton county for housebreaking ten months ago for a term of three years.

Holt escaped from the Eddyville penitentiary about four months ago and the officers had put forth every effort to recapture him. He was found in Barfield, Ark., and Deputy Sheriff Clark went after him. They arrived in the city last night and Holt was placed in jail here until this morning at 7:40 o'clock, when he was returned to the penitentiary. He had served only a portion of his term and has over two years yet to serve. He is a negro apparently about 45 years of age and was in rags when found.

EASTER COMES ON APRIL 12.

Easter this year will be on the 12th. The earliest date on which Easter can possibly fall is March 22, but this has not occurred since 1818, and will not again occur until the year of 2000 has been left well behind. The latest day for Easter is April 25. This was the date in 1886 and will be again in 1942. Beside in 1903, Easter will fall on April 12 in 1914, 1925, 1936 and 1998—five times in one century.

M'FADDEN'S FLAT.

Philadelphia, April 1—Eighteen men arrested as a result of a riotous demonstration during a performance of the farce, "McFadden's Row of Flats," were arraigned for a hearing and seventeen of them were held in $500 bail charged with malicious mischief and assault and battery. The eighteenth man was dismissed.

The Duffy will leave for Cumberland river today.

These things look frail, yet they have the strength and durability of the most massive furniture.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday. Warmer tonight.

Ice goes up today in St. Louis. People in the Future Great are getting a cold deal rather early.

Poor old Cairo! Probably they're waiting for the suds water to run out in order to ascertain if there's enough of the Egyptian city left to make a baseball park.

Some of us may be prone to believe from the pictures that Memphis is suffering from a flood, but they are still able to race horses with waded regularity down there.

Montana physicians worked on and resuscitated a young man who had been dead half an hour. The Democrats need not be too hopeful, however; their party has been dead too long.

Count Von Reventlow of Berlin comes back at Admiral Dewey by saying that the United States navy always wins—in its maneuvers for exhibition purposes, and that our officers and men are insufficient and the morale of the navy low, as evidenced by the desertions. It is to be hoped that Uncle Sam will never have occasion to convince the count of his error in sizing up our navy.

WHY LEAVES CHANGE COLOR.

Chemical Elements Produce the Hues We All Know.

A leaf is composed of a great number of cells, the walls of which are brown. In the spring and summer these cells are all filled with fluid, colored with minute grains of red, yellow and other pigments, which, mixed together, appear green. In the autumn, through the cold, oxidation and other changes take place in the leaf cells, destroying more or less rapidly certain of the color elements. As soon as one of these elements is gone the leaf no longer appears a normal green, but assumes the shade of the remainder of the color elements mixed together. When only the red element is left the leaf is red; when the yellow alone remains the leaf is yellow, and when all the coloring matter has gone the leaf is brown.

Frost is not the sole cause of the changes of color, but it is an important cause. The more gradual the changes of temperature from summer heat to winter cold, the greater will be the variety and brilliancy in the colorings of the autumn leaves.—Woman's Home Companion.

Robert Barr, the author, formerly of Detroit, has purchased the London Idler, and in advertising the fact says:

"I have bought the Idler, and I hope everyone else in England will do the same. It will cost you a simple sixpence; I paid a great deal more.

"I have no prejudice against a great name, indeed, if I wished to flaunt a resplendent reputation on the pages of the Idler, all I should have to do would be to write the whole magazine myself. But I am a cautious editor. When formerly connected with this magazine I was under the painful necessity of rejecting three of my own essays in fiction. They were not up to the mark. R. B. the editor, cannot delude R. B. the editor. At present I am using his literary talents for the writing of my circulars, and if he shows capacity I may print some articles in the magazine."

Memphis citizens have just organized an improvement association with 500 members, the object of which is to work for municipal improvements. Its first move was to set aside or provide ground for public parks. An association like this in Paducah would be a great help in upbuilding the city. Someone has got to start and do the work, and considering the uphill job, it cannot be commenced too soon. The Commercial club looks after the business.

BOYD FINED HEAVILY

Dray Driver Stuck for $100 and Sent to Jail.

Was Too Meddlesome at a Street Car Smashup Friday.

THE LATE POLICE NEWS

Ben Boyd, the colored dray driver, was heavily fined by Police Judge Sanders this morning for a breach of the peace.

During the Georgia minstrel parade last Friday a street car struck a wagon on Broadway and Ben immediately took a prominent part in attempting to straighten matters out. He and a motorman had words and knives were drawn and a general disturbance created. After hearing the evidence Judge Sanders thought that a fine of $100 with 50 days' jail sentence would be about all entered it up.

The breach of the peace case against Bill Brown, colored, and James Taylor and Ernest Ozment, white, was left open after a partial hearing of the evidence. Brown is alleged to have been badly used by bricks in the hands of the white boys.

Milt Cartwright and wife and Joe Warneck, white, were all recognized in the sum of $300 for their good behavior towards each other for a period of one year. They engaged in a general fuss which ended in a fight, according to the testimony of one defendant.

The breach of the peace case against Lizzie Jones, colored, was continued. She is alleged to have attempted to break in the door of Birtie Tyler.

Charles Burrell and Will Haag, white, were arraigned for a breach of the peace and the former fined $10 and costs and the latter dismissed.

The petty larceny charge against Nell Shaw was dismissed. Shaw is a negro charged with having taken lanterns from the I. C.

Ernest Hunt, white, was fined $10 and costs for riding on a car and refusing to pay his fare.

Mike Graston and J. W. Wyatt, white, were fined $1 and costs each for drunkenness.

Daisy Jonnigan, colored, was fined $20 and costs for immorality. Henry Thomas, a steamboat negro, was also warranted for the same charge but is not under arrest. His case was continued.

Marshal Crow stated this morning that he had received many complaints of brick and building material being left in the streets, especially at night without warning lights, and as it is in open violation of the law, he has instructed his police to swear out warrants against all contractors or persons having such material placed in the street. Several accidents have been narrowly averted of late and complaints have been numerous. The contractors who place sand and brick in the street must have a warning light out and any failure to do this will mean arrest and prosecution hereafter.

Marshal Crow this morning charged up all the policemen, making those who have been remaining on watch from 12 o'clock at noon until 12 at night take the watch held by the police serving from 12 at night until 12 noon. This plan was adopted in order to treat all alike and be perfectly fair. Several beats were changed about but the police will remain with few exceptions as they have been.

Patrol Driver John Austin was April fooled this morning and made a long run in answer to some joker's fake arrest. Lieutenant Harlan received a message about 10 o'clock to the effect that a policeman had a man under arrest at the Dogwood factory in the extreme northern portion of the town. The patrol was sent after the supposed arrest but no one knew of the matter and everything was quiet at the fact.

FIRE DRIVES TO DEATH

Carcasses of Wild Animals Choke a Lake in Washington State.

In a special dispatch from Tacoma, Wash., not long ago, the strange story was told of a lake in Clarke county that was choked with the bodies of wild animals driven into it by fierce forest fires. L. E. Duvall, a timber cruiser for the Northern Pacific railroad, tells the following story about it in the San Francisco Bulletin:

"The lake is only about one acre in extent, and I have frequently visited the place before. When passing near the spot several days ago I noticed a peculiar smell, and turned aside to make an investigation. I found the surface of the lake one mass of deer, foxes, bears, wolves and all the small varieties of animals that roam in our woods. The lake is in a deep hollow between the hills, and the fire had encircled it at a great distance in the first place, crowding toward the lake by degrees, and at last driving every living animal that had made its home in the woods for miles around into the lake, to be slowly roasted to death before the fierce heat.

"The whole surface of the water was covered with carcasses, and how many deep they were I had no means of knowing. From the remains of other animals near by I surmise that some tried to escape through the circle of fire. I have heard that in such supreme moments the fiercest animals forget their ferocity. Something like that must have occurred here, for bears, deer, wolves, mink and squirrels were indiscriminately mingled in the mass. Probably the only struggle was for lodgment on the backs of the already dead animals.

Numbers of the people living remote from that region were making pilgrimages to the lake to view the spectacle."

TO RAISE HINDOO TEMPLE.

Will Be Erected in London, but Will Contain No Gods.

The matter of establishing a Hindoo temple in London, which has been under discussion among the reform party of the Hindoo religion ever since the return of the Maharajah of Jaipur from the coronation, has at last been decided in the affirmative.

The Maharajah, who is the most prominent among Hindoo religious reformers, became impressed during his London visit with the necessity for the establishment of some consecrated place for observance of their religious duties by the numerous young Hindoo men prosecuting their studies in England.

The temple about to be established will not contain any gods, as the tenants of the Hindoo religion do not permit of their establishment on alien soil; worshippers will simply meet together, discuss the Bhagvat Gita and Hindoo scriptures, and offer up their prayers.

Marshal Crow this morning charged up all the policemen, making those who have been remaining on watch from 12 o'clock at noon until 12 at night take the watch held by the police serving from 12 at night until 12 noon. There are only two cases of smallpox in the county and one of these will be discharged this week.

IS STILL UNCONSCIOUS—The negro patient admitted to the railroad hospital yesterday in an unconscious condition is no better and nothing further has been learned of him. He is still unable to talk and is restless. A telegram has been sent up the Louisville division of the road, from where the patient came, but no information has been received in return.

MANY WERE LOST—Yesterday was the thirty-eighth anniversary of the destruction of the ship General Lyons off Cape Hatteras, in which many soldiers of Company A, 56th Illinois Infantry, from Metropolis and Massac county, Ill., went down. They had left Sherman's army at Wilmington, Del., and were on their way to Washington to be mustered out. In a storm a barrel of oil burst, burning the ship.

MORE THAN HALF.

SUFFER FROM COFFEE DRINKING.

Coffee does not set up disease with all people using it; on the other hand, it absolutely does create disease in thousands and thousands of cases perfectly well authenticated and traceable directly to coffee and nothing else.

This statement may hurt the feelings of some coffee drinkers, but the facts are exactly what they are.

Make inquiry of some of your coffee-drinking friends and you may be certain of one thing, one-half of them, yes, more than half, suffer from some sort of incipient or chronic disease. If you want to prove it's the coffee, or would prefer to prove it is not the coffee in these cases, take coffee away from those persons from ten days to a month, don't change the food in any other way, but give them Postum Food Coffee, and the proof of whether coffee has been the trouble or not will be placed before you in unmistakable terms.

A young lady in the St. Mary's Academy, Winnipeg, Can., says: "One of our teachers suffered a long while from indigestion. She was a coffee drinker. She became worse steadily and finally was reduced to a point where the stomach did not retain any food, then electricity was tried, but without avail. She, of course, grew weak very fast, and the doctor said the case was practically incurable.

"About that time I was attracted to a statement in one of the papers regarding the poisonous effect of coffee and the value of Postum Food Coffee. The statement was not extravagant, but couched in terms that won my confidence and aroused me to the belief that it was true. I persuaded our teacher to leave off the morning cup of coffee altogether and use Postum Food Coffee.

"A change took place. She began to get better. She has now regained her strength and is able to eat almost every kind of food and has taken her position as teacher again." Game given by Postum Co., Little Creek,

WEDDING OF MISS FRIEDMAN AND MR. LEVY.

The marriage of Miss Melitta Friedman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Friedman, of this city, to Mr. Benjamin Levy of Iowa, took place last evening at the bride's home on North Sixth street. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rabbi David Alexander of Temple Israel in the presence of only the relatives and intimate friends. The attendants were Miss Viola Ullman of this city, maid of honor, and Mr. Maurice Kohlman of Madisonville, Ky., who was best man. Master James Friedman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Friedman, acted as ring bearer. The bride wore an elegant dress of tan crepe and carried bride roses. The maid of honor was gowned in pink organdie, and carried pink carnations.

A reception from 9 to 11 o'clock followed the ceremony, and at this a large number of guests were present. The house was handsomely decorated for the occasion. Pink and white being the color effect.

Mr. and Mrs. Levy left this morning on an extended bridal trip south.

HIS FIRST LOVE.

MR. A. S. THOMPSON AGAIN SUPERINTENDENT OF STREET RAILWAY.

Mr. A. S. Thompson, who was for many years superintendent of the Paducah street railway, was today again appointed to that position, and assumes charge at once. He succeeds Mr. H. R. Porter, who will probably return to Cincinnati to reside.

Mr. Thompson resigned the position a year ago in order to give more attention to his stock yards, and since then Mr. Porter had been superintendent. Mr. Thompson is now in charge, and has not decided who will be his assistant.

GROCERY BURNED.

PADUCAH MAN HAS A STREAK OF BAD LUCK.

The grocery of E. R. Havrick at Fourteenth and Trimble streets was almost destroyed by fire last night. A lighted lamp was left in the store when it was closed about 8:30 and it is supposed exploded. A motorman in passing the store about 10 o'clock saw the building full of smoke and sent in an alarm. The fire department extinguished the blaze as soon as possible, but the damage will amount to about $400, it is thought. The building, which was not burned much, belongs to Mr. Dick Holland of Trimble street. Mr. Havrick's restaurant on Second street burned a few months ago, and he then went into the grocery business.

The gentleman's bad luck yesterday was still worse than losing his grocery, as he received news from Vienna, Ill., of the death of his sister, Miss Olive Havrick, of consumption.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

MANY OBSTRUCTIONS ENDANGER FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Last night a representative of The Sun rode on the hook and ladder truck in answer to an alarm about 10 o'clock. Owing to a mix-up in the boxes the ladder truck went to Mechanicsburg instead of Fourteenth and Trimble, from where the alarm was sent in. In making the run several accidents were narrowly escaped. On Sixth street a large pile of brick had been stacked in the street several feet from the gutter, and without a warning light. The driver had nearly run into the brick before they were seen. Another danger comes from persons leaving teams and buggies standing loose in the street. The horses become frightened and dash out in front of the truck. The firemen have often kicked about lumber, brick and other material being stacked in the street without any light and will hereafter prosecute any contractor violating the city ordinances in failing to put out warning lights.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

BASEBALL CLUBS NOW BECOMING OF INTEREST.

This afternoon the members of the association ball team will meet for practice. This sport bids fair to prove the most popular in the association and already several junior teams have been organized in the association. Saturday a week the junior association team will meet the team of Master Clay Kidd and an interesting contest is assured.

The tennis court will be used this week. The court has not yet been completed but will be used and paddled down in order to get it in shape for the formal opening.

The ladies' committee met last night and decided to have a "cake sale" on the Saturday preceding Easter Sunday. This will be something new and the ladies hope to be able to clear quite neat sum out of the affair. Cakes, eggs and all other Easter novelties will be sold.

KENTUCKY PROSPECTS.

Washington, April 1—"Republican prospects in Kentucky have been greatly improved on account of dissensions in the Democratic ranks," said Internal Revenue Commissioner John W. Yerkes, "and the Republicans ought to be able to elect a governor and state ticket next fall. I do not know who our candidate will be, for the situation has not developed sufficiently to determine that. Thus far there is but one man who is looked upon as an avowed aspirant, and that is Attorney General Pratt, but even he has not announced himself a candidate. The name of Augustus E. Williamson of Louisville is also mentioned, but he will not be a candidate, for he intends to devote himself to the practice of law."

Mr. Yerkes returned from his trip last night. After leaving Kentucky he went to Asheville, N. C., where he spent a couple of days. Discussing politics from a national viewpoint the commissioner said: "Kentucky will be for President Roosevelt at the next Republican convention. I regard his nomination and election as a foregone conclusion."

THE MAINE WRECK.

CUBA WILL RAISE IT AND SOLVE THE MYSTERY.

Washington, April 1—The navy department has been notified that the wreck of the battleship Maine is to be raised in Havana harbor, thus making possible a final solution of the mystery surrounding the manner in which the vessel was blown up. The wreck is to be raised by Cuba, at her own expense and bids for the work have been asked. Ever since the conclusion of the Spanish war the navy department has been besieged with requests for contracts for the privilege of raising the famous wreck. The department has invariably replied that there was no fund for this work and that, at any rate, Cuba's consent to the raising of the wreck would be necessary before the work would be undertaken.

There is still much curiosity and difference of opinion as to whether the Maine was destroyed by some outside power, or, as the Spanish claim, by spontaneous combustion in her magazines. The question will probably be settled finally when the wreck is raised.

BROOKPORT NEWS.

Mrs. Belle Mason is visiting in Paducah.

Brookport's bank begins business in the Smith brick on April 2.

Mrs. Anna Hall of Paducah spent last week with friends in the city.

Mrs. Ed Whalin and children are visiting relatives in Paducah this week.

Mr. Chas. E. Cardwell of Sturgis, Ky., who has been spending some days in the city, returned home Monday.

The Brookport Masonic lodge was called to the country today to conduct the funeral of Mr. John Lamar, an aged citizen living near the city.

Mrs. J. D. Whalin, whose husband was killed about a year ago on the railroad here, has sold her property in the city, and removed her household goods to East St. Louis Monday.

Our schools closed Monday and very pretty exercises were conducted by the teachers and pupils at the Christian church Monday evening. After the exercises each teacher was presented with a handsome present by the pupils of their respective grades. The presents were a surprise planned by the pupils themselves. The principal, Prof. A. L. Whittemer, has had charge of our school three years, and that his efforts and also those of the lower grades are appreciated was apparent by the large audience and beautiful presents.

Work Caused Nervous Prostration.

Heart Trouble and Great Suffering.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

Where the symptoms of heart disease and weakness are present together with those of nervous trouble, much benefit may be derived from the use of both Nervine and Heart Cure. The Nervine quietes the weary brain and brings sweet sleep, it strengthens and helps to cure the nervous system, restores nerve-force, vitality and energy. The action of the Heart Cure is equally beneficial. It aids the good work of Nervine by enriching the blood, improving the circulation and by its tonic action steadyng and restoring the heart beats or pulse to their normal activity.

"Some years ago while I was connected with the Western Medical Conference as President Elder, I was so overworn that I became greatly run down in health and suffered for two years with serious nervous prostration and heart trouble. At first I had spells of heart palpitation and smothering, and later there was a great deal of pain in the region of the heart and a feeling of oppression in the chest. During all this time I was very nervous, irritable and unable to sleep. Being advised to try Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and Pain Remedy, they proved exceedingly beneficial to me, affording complete and permanent cure. Since then your remedies have frequently been used by myself and family and always with the best results." —REV. C. H. POLHEMUS, U. B. Church, Washington, D. C.

A Good Beginning

If the blood is in good condition at the beginning of the warm season, you are prepared to resist disease and are not apt to be troubled with boils, pimples, blackheads and blotches, or the itching and burning skin eruptions that make one's life a veritable torment and misery.

Now is the time to begin the work of cleansing and building up the blood and strengthening the weak places in your constitution. During the cold winter months we are compelled to live indoors and breathe the impure air of badly ventilated rooms and offices. We over-work and over-eat, and get too little out-door exercise, and our systems become clogged with impurities and the blood a hot-bed of germs and humors of every kind, and warm weather is sure to bring a reaction, and the poisonous matter in the blood and system will break out in boils and pustules or scaly eruptions and red, disfiguring bumps and pimples. Make a good beginning this season by taking a course of S. S. S. in time; it will not only purify your blood and destroy the germs and poisons, but promote healthy action of the Liver and Kidneys and give you a good appetite at a time when you need it most.

S. S. S. improves the digestion and tones up the Stomach, and you are not continually haunted by the fear of indigestion every time you eat, or troubled with dizziness, nervousness and sleeplessness. There is no reason to dread the coming of warm weather if you have your system well fortified and the blood in a normal, healthy condition. It is the polluted, sluggish blood that invites disease germs, microbes and poisons of every kind and bring on a long train of spring and summer ailments, break down the constitution, and produce weakness, lassitude, and other debilitating disorders.

Eczema, Acne, Nettle-rash, Poison Oak and Ivy, and other irritating skin troubles are sure to make their appearance unless the humors and poisons are antidoted and the thin, acid blood made rich and strong before the coming of warm weather.

A course of S. S. S. now would be a safe precaution and a good beginning and enable you to pass in comfort through the hot, sultry months and escape the diseases common to spring and summer. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and is recognized as the best blood purifier and the most invigorating and pleasant of all tonics. Write for our book on "The Blood and Its Diseases."

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD WAS IN FLOWER

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening In the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered Into Modern English From Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir

By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Bowen-Merrill Company

"Yes, I suppose so. But don't bother me."

"Will he be at the dance and banquet tonight?"

"No! Now I must go. Don't bother me, I say!" And the king moved away.

That night we had a grand banquet and dance at Westminster, and the next day we all, excepting Lady Mary, went back to Greenwich by boat, paying a farthing a head for our fare. This was just after the law fixing the boat fare, and the watermen were a quarreling lot, you may be sure. One farthing from Westminster to Greenwich! Eight miles. No wonder they were angry!

The next day I went back to London on an errand and over to Wolsey's house to borrow a book. While there Master Cavendish, Wolsey's secretary, presented me to the handsome stranger, and he proved to be no other than Charles Brandon, who had fought the terrible duel down in Suffolk. I could hardly believe that so mild mannered and boyish a person could have taken the leading part in such a tragedy. But with all his gentleness there was an underlying dash of cool daring which intimated plainly enough that he was not all mildness.

We became friends at once, drawn together by that subtle human quality which makes one nature fit into another.

After a time Judson began to breathe hard and his thrusts to lack force.

"Boy, I would spare you," he said.

"I have killed enough of your tribe. Put up your sword and call it quits."

Young Brandon replied: "Stand your ground, you coward. You will be a dead man as soon as you grow a little weaker. If you try to run, I will thrust you through the neck as I would a cur. Listen how you snort. I shall soon have you. You are almost gone. You would spare me, would you? I could preach a sermon or dance a hornpipe while I am killing you. I will not break my sword against your coat of mail, but will wait until you fall from weakness, and then— Fight, you bloodhound!"

Judson was pale from exhaustion, and his breath was coming in gasps as he tried to keep the merciless sword from his throat. At last, by a dexterous twist of his blade, Brandon sent Judson's sword flying thirty feet away. The fellow started to run, but turned and fell upon his knees to beg for life. Brandon's reply was a flashing circle of steel, and his sword point cut lengthwise through Judson's eyes and the bridge of his nose, leaving him sightless and hideous for life—a revenge compared to which death would have been merciful.

The duel created a sensation throughout the kingdom, for, although little was known as to who Judson was, his fame as a duelist was as broad as the land. He had been at court upon several occasions, and at one time, upon the king's birthday, had fought in the royal lists. So the matter came in for its share of consideration by king and courtiers, and young Brandon became a person of interest. He became still more so when some gentlemen who had served with him in the continental wars told the court of his daring and bravery and related stories of deeds at public gaze.

There can, however, be no reason why those parts treating solely of outside matters should be so carefully guarded, and I have determined to choose for publication such portions as do not divulge family secrets or skeletons, and which really redound to family honor.

For this occasion I have selected from the memoir of my worthy ancestor and namesake, Sir Edwin Caskoden, grandson of the goldsmith and master of the dance to Henry VIII, the story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, sister to the king.

This story is so well known to the student of English history that I fear its repetition will lack that zest which attends the development of an unforeseen denouement, but it is of so great interest and is so full in its sweet, fierce manifestation of the one thing insatiable by time—love—that I will nevertheless rewrite it from old Sir Edwin's memoir.

CHAPTER I.

HOW BRANDON CAME TO COURT.

HEN we learned that Brandon was coming to court, every one believed he would soon gain the king's favor. How much that would amount to none could tell, as the king's favorites were of many sorts and taken from all conditions of men. There was Master Wolsey, a butcher's son, whom he had first made almoner, then chief counselor and bishop of Lincoln, soon to be bishop of York and cardinal of the holy Roman church.

From the other extreme of life came young Thomas, Lord Howard, heir to the Earl of Surrey, and my Lord of Buckingham, premier peer of the realm. Then sometimes would the king take a yeoman of the guard and make him his companion in jousts and tournaments solely because of his brawn and bone. There were others whom he kept close by him in the palace because of their wit and the entertainment they furnished, of which class was I, and I flatter myself, no mean member.

I think it was in the spring of 1509—at any rate, soon after the death of the Modern Solomon, as Queen Catherine called her old father-in-law, the late King Henry VII,—that his august majesty Henry VIII, "the undivulgate flower and very Heire of both the sayd Linage," came to the throne of England and tendered me the honorable post of master of the dance at his sumptuous court.

As to "worldly goods," as some of the new religionists call wealth, I was very comfortably off, having inherited from my father, one of the counselors of Henry VII, a very competent fortune indeed. How my worthy father contrived to save from the greedy hand of that rich old miser so great a fortune I am sure I cannot tell. He was the only man of my knowledge who did it, for the old king had a reach as long as the kingdom, and, upon one pretext or another, appropriated to himself everything on which he could lay his hands. My father, however, was himself pretty shrewd in money matters, having inherited along with his fortune a rare knack at keeping it. His father was a goldsmith in the time of King Edward and enjoyed the marked favor of that puissant prince.

Being thus in a position of affluence, I cared nothing for the fact that little or no emolument went with the office. It was the honor which delighted me. Besides, I was thereby an inmate of the king's palace and brought into intimate relations with the court, and, for a thrust to kill, but his blade, like his father's and his brother's, bent double without penetrating. Unlike the others, however, it did not break, and the thrust revealed the fact that Judson's skill as a duelist lay in a shirt of mail which it was useless to try to pierce. Aware of this, Brandon knew that victory was his and that soon he would have avenged the murderers that had gone before. He saw that his adversary was strong neither in wind nor arm and had not the skill to penetrate his guard in a week's trying, so he determined to fight on the defensive until Judson's strength should wane, and then kill him when

I did not know when Brandon first came to London. We had all remained at Greenwich while the king went up to Westminster to waste his time with matters of state and quarrel with the parliament, then sitting, over the amount of certain subsidies.

Mar, the king's sister, then some eighteen or nineteen years of age, a perfect bud, just blossoming into a perfect flower, had gone over to Windsor on a visit to her elder sister, Margaret of Scotland, and the palace was dull enough Brandon, it seems, had been presented to Henry during this time at Westminster and had, to some extent at least, become a favorite before I met him. The first time I saw him was at a joust given by the king at West-

"Lightness of a
'Dorothy Dodd'"
On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

A NEW MONTH

The Post-Office Goes into the First Class.

Police Made 165 Arrests During the Month.

The fiscal year for the postoffices of the country ended yesterday, and the receipts of the Paducah office were between $41,000 and $42,000, which places the Paducah office in the first class and gives it all the advantages of that class. It was known at the beginning of the quarter that the office would pass into the second class, hence it will be no surprise to the public.

Sixty patients were admitted to the railroad hospital last month, the most being from accidents on the road. There has been a great deal of minor illness in railroad service, but the number of patients admitted for illness is small.

The police report for the past month shows a total of 165 arrests, with 188 3-4 miles traveled by the patrol wagon. The complete report is not yet made out.

Stamp Deputy Louis Bebout's report for the month of March shows collections amounting to $5,908.77 and stamps sold for 891 barrels of whiskey.

COUNTY COURT.

George W. Norton, executor, confers on S. B. Caldwell power of attorney.

Mr. Lowell McPherson, a Cuban missionary, certifies to the death of W. H. Rommel in Havana, Cuba, in February of last year. The deceased had property in this county and left no will. The certificate of death was filed in county court today.

R. H. Wootan deeds to Nellie Wootan, for $270, property on the Lovelaceville road.

A. C. Anderson of the city, aged 50, a blacksmith by trade, and Olivin Springs of the city, aged 55, were today licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of the groom and the second of the bride.

BIG DECREASE.

THE DEATH RATE IS RAPIDLY FALLING OFF.

The mortality rate is on a rapid decrease here and it is thought from the start that this year will register as few deaths as have ever been registered, if not fewer.

During the month of March only twenty-one deaths occurred, and since the first of the year only 110 deaths have been recorded. The statistics show that during 1900 600 death occurred; 1901 showed only 548 and 1902 only 518. The decrease has been 20 per cent and the health of the city is rapidly becoming better. Better sanitation is one of the principal causes.

DEATH AT FLORENCE.

MRS. ELLEN THOMPSON DIES AT AGE OF 81.

Mrs. Ellen Thompson, aged 81, one of the oldest and best known women of Florence Station, this county, died last night from old age. She had lived in the county for many years, and leaves no children, but a large number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

BEGIN TODAY—If you have never read one of our continued stories start the one beginning today, "When Knighthood Was in Flower." It is a story of "days of old, when knights were bold," and chivalrous, and brave—when men fought and died for fair women. It is full of action of the right sort, sparkling with wit and has plenty of sentiment. Be sure to get the first installment today. You will enjoy it.

Veils and Eyesight.

Dr. Nagel, an eminent German oculist, has again been investigating the effects of wearing veils, and has examined the cases of eighty-eight women whose eyesight has been injured by this practice. He finds that the size of the mesh, the distance of the veil from the eyes, and the color of the veil are the determining differences, and that 75 per cent of the women who habitually wear veils, by neglecting to take account of these matters, impair their sight, this result being brought about by the average defective veil in a period of four years.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 32.8 on the gauge, a fall of 0.1 in last 24 hours. Wind southwest, a light breeze. Weather clear and warmer. Temperature 52.

The Joe Fowler is today's Evansville packet.

The Memphis is due Friday to Tennessee river.

The Dick Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo.

The Sunshine is due Friday from Cincinnati to Memphis.

The Wilford is here from Cumberland land with a broken cylinder.

The Avalon went into Tennessee river this morning with a good trip.

The Thomas Parker arrived from Cumberland river this morning with ties.

The Savannah passed up into the Tennessee river this morning from St. Louis with an excursion party.

The big steel barge built by the American Bridge company at Pittsburgh a couple of months ago, which has been lying in the harbor, will be loaded with 2,500 tons of steel rails and towed to St. Louis next week by the J. Y. Lockwood.

The Joe Williams still carries the horns for taking into New Orleans the biggest tow of coal. She has landed there several times 40 coalboats, and one trip she had 52 pieces, but it is only proper to state in this connection that she double-tripped a good part of the way, and was a good deal longer in making the trip in consequence.

Statistics of recent years have shown that there is a steady increase in river traffic. Beginning with the construction of railroads, the river traffic declined steadily until 10 years ago. Since then there has been a gradual enlargement of the trade; not at the expense of the railroad traffic, but because of business that is better handled by water. The fact of this increase is not generally known. Supervising Inspector Dorsey, of Louisville, believes that there will be a steady increase in the volume of river traffic. In 1901 1,188,000 passengers were carried in his district, and last year there was an increase of 12,000 in the total. Memphis, Louisville, Evansville and Nashville, the four central points of Captain Dorsey's district, rank in the order named in the volume of business.

WANTS A JOB.

AMUSING EPISTLE FROM WOULD-BE POLICEMAN.

The chief of police receives many communications from persons desiring to become policemen and among them are found many curious specimens of letter writing. The following is a letter received this morning, and speaks for itself.

Milburn, Ky., March 30, 1902.
Chief Police of Paducah I would like to live with You as police if you are in need of a man I can give you all of the recommendation you want I am 6 feet and 4 inches and weigh 180 a place with you would be appreciated hoping to hear from you at once I remain yours truly.

The town in which the applicant lives is probably Milburn, as this is the place at which the letter was postmarked. Several words the writer was not closely acquainted with and he simply carried the spelling out in a nervous line. Marshal Crow would like to have the applicant but states that he is "full up" and can take on no more men at present.

THE STATUS QUO.

NOTHING DOING IN BASEBALL CIRCLES.

Manager Sam Jackson stated this morning that everything in baseball circles is at a standstill and will be until Cairo decides to either come in or stay out. The matter of Cairo's entering the league has been a topic of discussion for several weeks, and if something is not done soon another city will be secured in her place and the schedule of games arranged. The schedule meeting set for today at Hopkinsville has been postponed.
